

NEBOSH Diploma

Diploma in Occupational Safety & Health

A prestigious and highly recognised safety diploma held by over 10,000 health and safety professionals. The first step in becoming a chartered safety and health practitioner

Course Overview

The NEBOSH (National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health) Diploma is a Level 6 qualification providing the core knowledge in health and safety management, hazardous agents, workplace and equipment safety; building on the foundation knowledge gained in the NEBOSH General Certificate.

Course Syllabus

This detailed and high-level course is broken into four main units:

UNIT A – Managing Health & Safety

- Principles in Health & Safety Management
- Incident investigation
- Loss causation
- Measuring performance
- Identifying hazards
- Risk Control
- Human and organisational factors
- Health and safety law
- Criminal law

UNIT B – Hazardous Agents in the Workplace

- Toxicology and epidemiology
- Hazardous substances - assessing risk
- Hazardous substances – PPE
- Monitoring and measuring
- Biological agents
- Physical agents – noise and vibration
- Physical agents – radiation
- Psychological agents
- Musculoskeletal risks and controls

UNIT C – Workplace and Work Equipment

- General principles
- Fire and explosion
- Fire risk assessment
- COSHH
- Work equipment
- Electrical safety
- Construction hazards
- Workplace transport
- Pressure systems

UNIT D – Application of H&S Theory & Practice

Application of A, B and C Units undertaking a detailed review of a workplace. A detailed 8,000 word assignment must be produced to a level expected of a competent health and safety practitioner.

Course delivery options:

Tailored

Open

frequently asked questions...

The Course

Course Delivery	This course is available either as a Tailored or Open Course
Accreditation	NEBOSH
Course Length	Units A, B, C are taught over 10 days per unit (typically 2 five day blocks)
Start / Finish Times	To be agreed
Maximum Group Size	15
Tailored to Specific Requirements	Follows the NEBOSH syllabus
Course Material	Course guide and access to online guidance

Certification

Are certificates issued?	Yes – Individual units plus the diploma upon completion of all 4 units
Valid for?	N/A
Is there an Assessment?	Units A, B, C = 3 hour written assessments with 2 assessment dates per year, Unit D = 8,000 word assignment with 5 submission dates per year. All units must be completed within 5 years of each other.
When / how are they available?	6/8 weeks from submission

The Delegates

Prior Knowledge / Prerequisites	It is strongly recommended to have completed the NEBOSH General Certificate beforehand
Needs to bring along	N/A

The Venue

Course Location	NEBOSH Centre
Venue Requirements	N/A
Non-NUK Venues	N/A
Refreshment at NUK Venues	Various – please enquire